

RAM SHOUT OUTS!

October 28, 2020

- "Elise Rataj and Noemi Crall were really nice to me today. They made me laugh and I really enjoy that." - Anonymous
- "Shout out to Mr. Shockley for being an amazing and loving advisor, and for making his room feel like a safe space for everyone, even though this was last year." - Anonymous
- "A few days ago I was really sad about something and Elise Tourais is one of my besties and she made me feel good by telling me things that were going on in her life and I did the same. Also she told me jokes and just made me really happy and she made me smile. For the rest of the day it made me realize that she is truly an amazing and helping person! Thanks Elise!" - Abby Selner (5th grade)
- "Mr Shockley for being an amazing, loving advisor, and for making his room feel like a safe place." - Anonymous
- "Ford Bauer shared LEGOS ideas with me!" - Wesley Sherman (SK)
- "Mr. Shockley, for being an understanding and caring teacher. I always feel safe in Mr. Shockley's classroom." - Anonymous
- "My friends and I were talking about 4th grade and how fun it was!" - Tara Sadasivam (6th grade)
- "THANK YOU HANNAH ZAR FOR BEING BRIGHT AND HAPPY 24/7! WE LOVE YOU." - Anonymous
- "I joined debate club! It was my first time meeting Ms. Dunson, and she was so welcoming and nice!" - Anonymous
- "Mrs. Schneider put my water bottle in the cabinet for safekeeping overnight because I accidentally left it at school." - Anonymous
- "Honestly, I'd love to thank the Ram Shout Outs. I had the worst day today, but reading about Mr. Roberts singing and people's silly games in class really really cheered me up. Thank you to everyone, because every submission is another reason to smile!" - Jada Greer (9th grade)
- "Thank you to the JK Team for all of your help!" - Ms. Laura Pupillo
- "In science, we went outside and cut down some honeysuckle. It's an invasive species. It was really fun!" - Emily Rotskoff (6th grade)
- "I would like to give a shoutout to Isabela Schroeder and Isolde Scoville for being great friends to everyone." - Anonymous
- "Thank you to the SK teachers for 'moving things around' in the classroom today." - Anonymous
- "Ms. Coppersmith always says some of the following phrases at the beginning of class: 'buenos días, buenas tardes, hola chicos, hola y un nombre, and ¿cómo están chicos?' It makes me feel welcomed into the classroom and video conference room." - Anonymous
- "I would love to give a shout out to the girls cross country team!!! It's my first year on the team and everybody, coaches and teammates, has been super kind to me. They're all so supportive of each other and are positive even through freezing rain and the toughest workouts!" - Kate Williamson (9th grade)
- "Ms. Beasley because she made my lazy rainy morning brighter." - Anonymous
- "Mr. Fitz lent me his computer charger when I forgot mine at home!" - Anonymous

- "I know this is very general yet I would like to take a moment to appreciate the positivity and kindness that is deeply ingrained in our community. To be specific, I am referencing the door-holding that goes on where it starts with a single person and becomes a beautiful chain where people make all the efforts to hold the door for someone, regardless of who it is and whether you know them. I have truly made some great friends in the process!" - Anonymous
- "Ms. Prince is always great. It's lovely to be able to talk things out in her class." - Anonymous
- "One day I forgot my pencil bag and I was nervous. Lydia in my math class was super nice to let me use her pencil for the whole day!" - Jessie Zhang (5th grade)
- "Shout out to the 4 graduating seniors on the varsity volleyball game! You are all amazing and we've had so much fun watching you play and lead the team this year. We'll miss you Courtney, Andi, Cece, and Katie!" - Anonymous
- "Reagan Saur is one of my favorite friends at school and is always making my day. She is a funny and friendly person and I am lucky to have her as a friend!" - Skyler Dastgah-Bradford (4th grade)
- "Mr. Fitzgerald always tells a funny joke in class. It really brightens my day!" - Anonymous

...and a special Ram Alumni Shout Out from Alexandra Donovan '13:

"I find myself reflecting more and more on my time at MICDS the older I get. As the stress of AP classes and SAT prep fades away, my good memories seem to only get stronger. It's been nice to feel connected to the community through the email communications to alumni over the last several months."
